

Trade Specialist

If you enjoy a varied role then trade specialist maybe for you. Dealing with the building industry across all types of construction and with tradies and builders of all shapes and sizes. The trade specialist works to provide services from advice, costing job and quotes, calculating materials required, reading plans, loading and unloading trucks, handling products, making deliveries, going on to construction sites, assisting with installations. The trade specialist is the tradies and builders best friend.

Pathways include;

Training: Can include Certificates in Retail Operations and Small Business Management, specialist areas of product knowledge and construction techniques.

Skills: Enjoy dealing with people, hands on, enjoy constructing things, numeracy, attention to detail, problem solving.